

Rubric for Follow-the-Directions Activities

You will receive an “A” if your activity has this:

1. Your directions are written out and readable.
2. Your directions are clear, understandable, and complete.
3. Your directions are in the right order.
4. Your verbal directions are complete and easy to follow.
5. Every student was able to follow your directions and complete the activity.

You will receive a “B” if your activity has this:

1. Your directions are written out.
2. Your directions are understandable and complete.
3. Your verbal directions are easily followed.
4. Some of the students were able to follow your directions and complete the activity.

You will receive a “C” if your activity has this:

1. Your directions are not written out.
2. Your directions are understandable.
3. Your directions can be followed.
4. Some students were able to follow your directions.

You will receive a “D” if your activity has this:

1. Your directions are not written out.
2. Your directions are not complete
3. Most students were able to follow your directions.

You will receive an “F” if your activity has this:

1. Your directions are not written out.
2. Your directions are not clear, understandable, or complete.
3. Your directions could not be followed.